The chapter president also sent him a custom birthday card on behalf of the chapter. A parade led by a barbecue restaurant truck, two fire trucks and police cruisers drove by. More than 25 cars of residents circled back for a second pass with children waving from car windows and sunroofs. An estimated 100 people walked by. A new home owner who has yet to move in planted many flags at the Dunlap residence early that morning. "Rain did little to dampen the celebration," one participant noted.
